

Influitive Sub-processors

Last updated: May 11, 2023

Influitive enlists the services of various vendors to power our infrastructure and operations. Each vendor is assessed annually for risks related to customer data access, integration with processes and systems, change management, communication, and customer impact. To comply with our obligations under applicable data protection laws, please refer to the list of sub-processors below.

Influitive customers can subscribe to be notified of any updates to our security or sub-processors.* Click here to subscribe.
